Triumph TR5 PI – Original British Sportiness in a Rare Specification

Now available: a stunning and rare Triumph TR5 PI – an icon of the 1960s, renowned for its rarity, character, and exhilarating driving experience. This particular TR5 is more than just a classic car: it comes equipped with the original Surrey hardtop with aluminium roof panel and matching soft-top, making it a highly desirable example for enthusiasts and collectors alike.

Model History

The Triumph TR5 was produced between 1967 and 1968 as the bridge between the TR4 and TR6. Only 2,947 units were ever built, exclusively for the European market. What truly sets the TR5 apart is its mechanical petrol injection system (PI) fitted to the legendary 2.5-litre inline-six engine, producing around 150 hp. At the time, this was revolutionary technology, making the TR5 one of the most powerful British sports cars of its era. Its low production numbers and sporty performance have since made it a true classic in the eyes of collectors.

About This Particular Car

This right-hand-drive Triumph TR5 PI is presented in beautiful, original and rust-free condition, featuring the rare and highly sought-after Surrey top system, including both the aluminium hardtop and convertible soft-top – a configuration that's increasingly hard to find.

Key Features:

- Original interior with lovely patina that highlights the car's character
- Chrome wire wheels, true to its classic British roots
- Overdrive gearbox for relaxed cruising at higher speeds
- Sport steering wheel for a more direct driving feel
- 12V power outlet and an extra electric cooling fan with sensor, adding modern-day reliability

Mechanically in Top Condition

This TR5 has recently benefited from a range of important mechanical upgrades and maintenance, making it fully road-ready for long-distance drives. Recent work includes:

- New fuel pump
- New fuel pressure regulator
- Complete gearbox overhaul
- Full service and comprehensive inspection
- New clutchpump

We've recently taken this TR5 on an extensive road trip through the English Lake District, proving its mechanical reliability and roadworthiness. The car runs beautifully, handles confidently, and feels at home on both winding country roads and motorways.

A Unique Opportunity

Whether you're looking for a collectible classic, a tour-ready rally car, or simply a timeless expression of British motoring heritage, this Triumph TR5 PI offers it all. With its rare configuration, tasteful upgrades, and solid reliability, it's ready to be enjoyed for years to come.

Triumph TR5 PI – A British classic with soul and pedigree.
