Lancia Flaminia Sport Zagato 3C

Originally delivered in Belgium — only 11 Flaminia Sport Zagato 2.5 3C were sold new in Belgium.
Second series – 3C: the sought-after tre carburatori with three carburettors on the 2.5-litre V6.
Beautifully restored (body, interior and mechanics) with a complete photo file.
Full history known — neatly documented.
Timeless colours: silver metallic over a stylish, authentic black leather interior.
Ready to drive: mechanically renewed, presented beautifully, ready to be enjoyed.

Short model history

The Flaminia was Lancia's prestige model of the 1950s–60s and successor to the Aurelia. Its chassis and refined V6 (developed by engineer Francesco de Virgilio) underpinned coachbuilt versions by Italy's finest carrozzerie. Zagato designed the Sport: a hand-built, lightweight coupé with aluminium bodywork, aerodynamic lines and a distinctly driver-focused character.
The second series Flaminia Sport pairs that pure Zagato design with the 3C engine (three carburettors) for lively throttle response and a wonderfully elastic V6. The result is a classic gran turismo feel that is as elegant as it is potent — exactly what made Lancia's golden years so revered.

Condition & documentation of this car

• Body & paint: professionally restored in silver metallic; straight panels and fine panel fit.

• Interior: stylish and well-kept, retaining the correct character and details.

• Mechanicals: renewed where needed (details on request); correct setup of the three carburettors; healthy running and cooling.

• File: complete history plus an extensive photo record of restoration and maintenance.

• Originality & parts: a tidy, coherent car with clear attention to authenticity and quality.

Driving & feel

The 2.5-litre V6 sounds warm and silky, with a lovely mid-range; the 3C configuration adds exactly the crispness a Zagato deserves. Steering and brakes suit a light-footed GT: elegant cruising or spirited B-road enjoyment — this Lancia does both.
