Abarth 695 70th Anniversario – Belgian-delivered, first owner, iconic specification

For the enthusiast looking for a compact sports car with character, presence and a truly distinctive personality, this Abarth 695 70th Anniversario is a particularly attractive opportunity. This is an original Belgian-delivered car, coming from its first owner, complete with its original purchase invoice and a documented service history. A correct and carefully preserved example of a special and highly desirable edition.

This Abarth is finished in the beautiful and typically Italian Verde Monza 1958, a colour that perfectly highlights the exclusive nature of this anniversary model. The interior is equally special, featuring the striking Sabell Tricolore sports seats, which not only look fantastic but also suit the car's sporting and exclusive character perfectly.

The 695 70th Anniversario was created to celebrate Abarth's rich sporting heritage. As you would expect from a true Abarth, everything here is about driving excitement: compact dimensions, lively performance, a direct driving experience and a look that immediately makes it clear this is no ordinary city car. This version combines that playful and energetic nature with a particularly generous level of equipment and a specification that makes it highly collectible.

This car is equipped with the MTA Dualogic gearbox, combining sporting character with greater ease of use, as well as the Beats premium audio system, delivering high-quality sound on board. In addition, it was originally specified with a number of sought-after sporty and comfort-enhancing features, including Koni shock absorbers, the characteristic Active Record Monza exhaust system, xenon headlights, front fog lights, rear parking sensors and a rain sensor.

As befits a genuine Abarth, this 695 delivers a lively and emotional driving experience. The combination of its compact size, sporty setup and characterful exhaust note makes every drive an occasion. At the same time, thanks to its generous equipment and practical dimensions, it remains a very enjoyable car to use on a daily basis.

This Abarth 695 70th Anniversario offers a highly appealing combination of Belgian origin, first ownership, correct history, special edition status and a very attractive specification. A car for someone looking for flair, sportiness and far more character than the average hot hatch.
